PLO Secretary-General briefs ambassadors of Munich Group on dangerous Israeli escalation

The Secretary-General of the Executive Committee of the PLO, Hussain al-Shaikh met today with ambassadors of the Munich Group (Egypt, Jordan, France, and Germany", where he briefed them on the latest field developments and the dangerous Israeli escalation.

"We exchanged views on the mechanisms of activating the group's role regionally and internationally to create a political horizon, as well as place pressure on Israel to stop all unilateral measures," he said in a tweet.

He also thanked the four countries for the effort exerted by them and their continuous support for the necessity of having a political vision based on international legitimacy to end the Israeli occupation.
