

Al-Sheikh: Banning Christmas celebrations in the Gaza Strip is a “dark decision.”

Banning Christmas in the Gaza Strip is a decision that has nothing to do with our people’s religious, national and social morals. Its an illustration of dark takfiri thought that hits the foundations of our people’s unity, respect for beliefs and religions and freedom of opinion and belief