AlSheikh: The citizens are eager to cast their ballots

The Head of the General Authority of Civil Affairs and Fatah Central Committee Member, Minister Hussein AlSheikh has praised the excellent voter turnout that the electoral register has shown. He said: “This proves that the citizens are highly aware of their civil rights and eager to cast their ballots.”

And in a tweet, he has said: “Respect to our great people, and praised be Fatah’s young men and women for their efforts across the various frameworks and institutions.”

AlSheikh added: “The victory of awareness is a prelude to the victory of the best option. Long live Palestine. Victory shall be ours.”
