

Al-Sheikh: The arrival of Israeli President to the city of Hebron is a legalization of the settlements

The Head of the General Authority of Civil Affairs and Fatah Central Committee Member, Minister Hussein AL-Sheikh, wrote via Twitter on Sunday: "The arrival of the President of Israel to the city of Hebron is a legalization of the settlements and settlers' campaigns, a violation of international legitimacy, and a political, moral and religious provocation."