Al-Sheikh: We demand the international community for immediate protection of the Palestinian people

Minister Hussein Al-Sheikh, Chairman of the Palestinian Civil Affairs Commission and Member of the Central Committee of Fatah Movement, wrote via Twitter on Sunday: “We demand the international community to provide immediate protection for the Palestinian people, who are being killed and are having their homes and lands burned by organized racist gangs. In the face of the settlers’ attacks and their organized terrorism under the protection of the occupation army against our people in Palestinian cities, villages and camps, and our people’s heroic response to this terrorism”
