

Al-Sheikh condemns the crimes of the IOF in Nablus and holds the occupation forces accountable

Another crime committed by the occupation forces in the old city of Nablus, where martyrs have fallen and many wounded, there was also destruction of homes and burning of property.

We strongly condemn this crime, and we hold the occupation responsibility for its repercussions.

We reiterate that the international protection to our people would put a line in front of these crimes committed against it.