Al-Sheikh met with the Australian representative to Palestine

This morning, i met with His Excellency the Australian representative to Palestine, Mr. Edward Russell.

Where we discussed the latest political developments on the Palestinian issue at all local and international levels, praising the bilateral relations between the countries, and Australia’s important role in supporting the Palestinian people, especially the Australian government’s recent decision to cancel its recognition of West Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, which was welcomed by the Palestinians on public and official level.
