Al-Sheikh: All the measures announced by the occupation government will not discourage us from our position in pursuing their government

All the measures announced by the occupation government, foremost of which is the continued piracy of our money, will not discourage us from our position in pursuing their government in international institutions and forums and exposing their policies against Palestinians, and we call on the international community to force the occupation government to release the billions of shekels that have been pirated.