We welcome the joint statement issued by the Foreign Ministers of European countries and the United states

We welcome the joint statement of the Foreign Ministers of France, Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, and the United States on the latest Israeli decisions specifically the announcement of settlements.

We demand that words be turned to deeds, in an international will that compels Israel to stop its aggression and its measures, against the Palestinian people.