Al-Sheikh: We welcome the international reactions to the statements of the terrorist Smotrich

We welcome the international reactions to the statements of the terrorist Smotrich, and we demand that words be translated into action, through international protection for our people from the oppression of the occupiers and herds of settlers, and the implementation of international legitimacy decisions and forcing the occupation government to stop its continuous aggressive measures of incursions, settlements, killings, and others.