

Al-Sheikh: A fierce and open war is being waged against the Palestinian people

A fierce and open war is being waged against the Palestinian people politically, security and economically by the occupation forces.

We are in the midst of a comprehensive battle on all fronts that requires the unity of our people in the face of this aggression.

And unprecedented decisions that must be taken in the emergency leadership meeting chaired by the President.