Al-Sheikh met with Jordanian Foreign Minister Ayman Safadi

Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs and Expatriate Affairs, Ayman Al-Safadi, received today the Secretary General of the Executive Committee of the PLO, Hussein AlSheikh, within the framework of the continuous coordination and consultation process between the Kingdom of Jordan and the State of Palestine.

AlSafadi and AlSheikh discussed the efforts made to stop the deterioration in the occupied Palestinian territories, and to find a real political horizon to relaunch serious and effective negotiations to achieve a just and comprehensive peace based on the two-state solution, in a way that embodies the independent and sovereign Palestinian state along the borders of June 4, 1967, with occupied Jerusalem as its capital, so that it can have security and peace alongside Israel based on international legitimacy resolutions and approved references.

AlSafadi and AlSheikh stressed the need to stop the illegal Israeli measures that undermine the chances of achieving peace. They also warned of the danger of the continued absence of real movement to resolve the conflict on the basis of the two-state solution.
