

Al-Sheikh met with Her Excellency the British Consul General in Jerusalem

Today, Thursday, I met with Her Excellency the British Consul General in Jerusalem, Ms. Diane Corner.

We discussed the latest political developments in the region and on the international arena, in addition to bilateral Palestinian-British relations.

I also briefed her on the latest developments in the local political arena. I thanked the Consul for raising aid to UNRWA.

In turn, Ms. Corner stressed their constant support for the two-state solution and the need to seize opportunities to take steps to protect it.
