Al-Sheikh met with the representatives of the G7

Today, I called on the representatives of the G7 in a meeting in my office in Ramallah, to stop the Israeli aggression against our people and open humanitarian pathways.

And the need to stop the occupation’s plans to displace our people, and stressed the necessity of finding a political solution that ends the occupation and fulfills the legitimate rights of our people to freedom, independence, and the establishment of a Palestinian state with its capital, Jerusalem.

The meeting was attended by the presidential spokesman, Mr. Nabil Abu Rudeineh.
