Al-Sheikh: The hatred of failure drives the prime minister of the occupation government to more killing, destruction and displacement

The hatred of failure drives the prime minister of the occupation government to moral, humanitarian and political blindness, and drives him to more killing, destruction and displacement. Yesterday, he announced his strategic goal in this war – which is to completely reoccupy the Gaza Strip and the West Bank. Forgetting or "forgetting" that his occupation is going to end and we will remain.
