Al-Sheikh met with members of the G7+1

Today, Wednesday, I met with members of the G7+1 in my office. We discussed the latest developments on the field on the sixth day of the humanitarian pause, and fifty-three days after the launch of the brutal Israeli aggression on the Gaza Strip.

The possibilities of extending longer pause periods, the possibilities of definitively ending the war in the Gaza Strip, and the situation in the West Bank and East Jerusalem were also discussed, in addition to the financial crisis that the Palestinian Authority is currently facing.

The seven countries, represented by Japan, the United States, the European Union, Britain, Germany, France, Italy, Canada + Norway, affirmed their firm and supportive position for the two-state solution.
