

AlSheikh offers condolences for the loss of Mr. Saeb Erekat

My brother and companion, the leader Saeb Erekat, may his soul Rest In Peace

President Abbas receives the Jordanian Minister of Foreign Affairs

President Abbas receives the Jordanian Minister of Foreign Affairs Ayman Safadi, (envoy from the Jordanian King) to offer condolences for the departure of Dr. Saeb Erekat, may God have mercy on him, in the presence of H.E. Minister Hussein Al Sheikh & Minister Riyadh Al-Maliki.

Our complete and real independence will be on the day the occupation has ended

The path to independence is paved with patience, perseverance and steadfastness, and our complete and real independence will be on the day the occupation has ended and the flag of Palestine is raised over the mosques and churches of Jerusalem. Greetings to our resilient people

Agreement to transfer all financial dues to the PA and rejected the settlement policy

Today I held a meeting with the Israeli side, we emphasized that the bilateral agreements signed, which are based on international legitimacy, are what governs this relationship.

It was agreed to transfer all financial dues to the PA, and we rejected the settlement policy, demolishing homes & lands confiscation. It was agreed to hold another meeting soon.

The strategic option of Fatah is the achievement of Palestinian national reconciliation

The strategic option of Fatah in the matter of the internal situation is the achievement of Palestinian national reconciliation and the continuation of the national dialogue.

AlSheikh: Our strength lies in our unity and the path to victory

The movement appreciates the effort of its delegation in this dialogue, and thanks all the brothers who contributed to its success. Our strength lies in our unity and the path to victory

Statement regarding the US Secretary of State's visit to settlements in the West Bank

The visit of the US Secretary of State, Mr. Pompeo, to settlements in the West Bank is a challenge to international legitimacy and the positions of all previous US administrations, which has emphasized the illegality of settlement in the occupied Palestinian territories.

Congratulations for new US

President-elect Joe Biden

We congratulate the American people for their new President-elect Joe Biden, and the first woman to be Vice president-elect Kamala Harris.

Mr. President Abbas looks forward to working with Mr. President Biden and his VP, and the incoming administration.